

Brighton Endoscopic Lacrimal and Orbital Course

Brighton and Sussex
University Hospitals NHS
NHS Trust

brighton and sussex
medical school

21st - 22nd June 2020

2 Day Intensive Course with expert faculty

Highlights

Maximum hands on experience: 2 delegates and one faculty member per station, with fresh frozen cadaveric heads

Intensive training in powered endoscopic DCR, endoscopic medial wall decompression and floor surgery

Fully equipped surgical stations with Storz and Medtronic equipment

Demonstration of Stealth Image Guidance, 3D endoscopy and dacryoendoscopy

Opportunity to perform septoplasty, lateral canthotomy, Lester Jones tube insertion

Course Directors

Mr Saul Rajak Oculoplastics, Brighton

Mr Tony McGilligan ENT, Brighton

Professor Dinesh Selva Oculoplastics, Adelaide

Location

The state of the art Brighton and Sussex
Medical School Dissection Room

Cost: Early bird rate - £1000, rate after Jan 2020 - £1200. Including lunch, refreshments and conference dinner (Sunday 21st June 2020)

Contact: BrightonEndoCourse@gmail.com

❁ Faculty

Miss Hiba Al Reefy ENT, Bahrain

Mr David Curragh Oculoplastics, Belfast

Mr Garry Davis Oculoplastics, Adelaide

Mr Daniel Ezra Oculoplastics, Moorfields

Mr Andre Litwin Oculoplastics, East Grinstead

Mr Raman Malhotra Oculoplastics, East Grinstead

Prof Elie Rebeiz ENT, Boston

Mr San Sunkaraneni ENT, Guildford

Miss Jane Olver, Oculoplastics, London

❁ Suitable for:

Oculoplastic and ENT fellows

Consultants with an interest in endoscopic lacrimal and orbital surgery

Lectures

Anatomy of the lacrimal drainage system and sinuses

Tips on learning curve in endoscopic DCR

Management of haemorrhage and other complications

Assessment of CT and preparation for endoscopic medial wall decompression surgery

Supported by

Karl Storz Endoscopy

Medtronic

Veni Vidi

FCI Ophthalmics

Thea Pharmaceuticals

